GREEN GIANTS REACH 16 FEET HIGH

Mr. Frank DeCosta, proprietor of the Gateway to Cape Cod, has a green thumb and the results to prove it. This year his crop of sunflowers grew to sixteen feet and are big as dishpans. Mr. DeCosta is shown standing atop his shed to measure the gigantic flowers. He is an adventurous gardener who experiments with plants to try to make them bigger and more beautiful. He must be doing something right.

MYC CONCLUDES RACING SEASON

Mattapoissett Yacht Club concluded its racing season Saturday, September 2nd, with the last contest in the August Series, two classes vying for top honors. Billy Mee won for the Corinthians and Harvey Pentleton for the Beetle Cats.

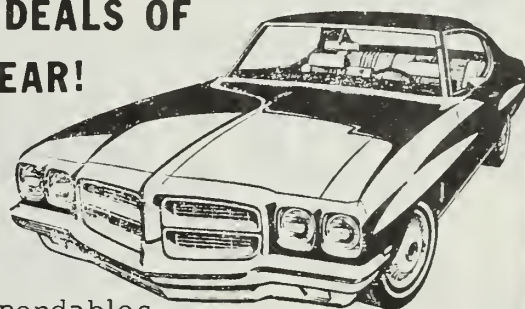

Gusty E-SE 20-mile winds and choppy seas prevailed throughout the afternoon.

The four Corinthians sailed a single race with a long course to Crescent Beach MYC guide buoy, to Barnard's Wharf MYC guide buoy, to Shining Tides MYC guide buoy, to Ned's Point MYC guide buoy and finish in mid-harbor.

It turned out to be a highly competitive, nip and tuck battle for most of the way between Art Blackburn's Escape and Billy Mee's Irish Eyes. Finally Irish Eyes seized the initiative to win over both Don David Jenney in Ariel led at the start, trailed by Harvey Pentleton's Swamp Fox, Phil McCarthy's Wolf and Susan McGowan's Hep Cat. They continued on in this formation until reaching the last marker. Nearing the finish, however, Swamp Fox came from behind to outdistance Ariel by seven seconds, and Hep Cat passed Wolf to come in third by a 12-second margin.

The second Beetle Cat race proved to be both fast moving and unpredictable.

The course was again a 4-legged one, which took them this time to Ned's Point MYC guide buoy, to Mattapoissett Neck MYC guide buoy, to Molly's Cove MYC guide buoy, and finish in mid-harbor.

Susan narrowly won the starting duel from Phil McCarthy and Harvey Pentleton and continued on in command at both first and second markers. But, on the third leg, Dave Jenney began to challenge, lessening the gap from 15-boat lengths astern to six. However, on the home stretch, Dave and Phil tacked over to the town side of the harbor - a maneuver that cost them time. Meanwhile, Pentleton commenced to gain

Unique Portraits

EXHIBIT AT ART CENTER

An unusual exhibit of oil paintings opened at the Marion Art Center on September 8th. Figures from past decades fill much of the gallery walls. Set against studio backdrops is a series of four old fashioned children, and a portrait of the artist's mother has her looking towards an eery landscape. They evoke some of the poetic quality of old photographs. This is no coincidence as the portraits are painted primarily from photographs. The artist, Louise Hellier Louvix, has been fascinated by the elusive, dream-like quality of some of these old photographs, or by a sandy beach or sun-baked lawn remembered from another time.

There is a spontaneity in the modern portraits that contrasts with those done from old photographs. Through the use of snapshots the artist captures her subjects with a typical gesture, stance, or activity that would be impossible to maintain in a studio pose. The unifying element in the show is the artist's concern for a total image. Setting and mood tell as much in these paintings as do the qualities of the faces.

Mrs. Louvis grew up in Marion, attended Tabor Academy, graduated from Abbot Academy, Andover, and majored in Fine Arts at Hollins College, Virginia. She also studied with Hans Hoffmann in New York.

The exhibit will run through October 1st. Gallery hours are 1 to 5 P.M. Tuesday thru Sunday, and anyone interested in having a portrait done should contact the Art Center.

ANNUAL MEETING AT MYC

The annual meeting of the Mattapoisett Yacht Club was held at the clubhouse on Sunday afternoon, September 3rd, for the presentation of awards, the transaction of general club business and the election of officers.

The high point, as usual, was the presentation of flags and awards for the season to series winners and winners of special holiday races. In addition, three outstanding Juniors in the Sailing Training Program were cited: 1) Walter Burr, for Sportsmanship, the Dr. L. F. Potter Memorial Trophy; 2) David Covill, for Scholarship, the Lucy Agnault award; and 3) Jim Broadwater, best racer.

The Howard Stillman Bates Award went to Mrs. Ann Donald.

In conclusion the following slate of officers was submitted and accepted: Philip McCarthy, commodore; Mrs. Ann Donald, vice-commodore; William Mee, rear-commodore; Berthold Putman, treasurer; and L. F. Klein, Jr., secretary.

Mrs. George W. H. Smith of Mattapoisett will be the guest speaker for the Travel Club on Friday, September 15th, at 8 P.M. This is the first meeting of the season; and prospective Travel Club members are cordially invited to attend.

"Safari in Africa" will be illustrated with color movies taken by Mrs. Smith on her three-week trip to Uganda, Tanzania and Kenya. One 3400 mile trip in Uganda was by plane, but the rest of the travel was by automobile. Wild animals in their natural habitat carefully guarded inside nationally owned parks will be shown in the film.

The trip to Africa was sponsored by the Florida Zoological Society of which Mrs. Smith is a member.

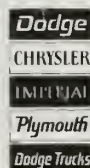

A business meeting will be held at 7:30 and Miss Lois Lavalette, president, announces that plans will be made for the members' free trip in October.

Refreshments served by the hospitality committee will conclude the evening's Fair chairman Mark Harris reported on the success of the two suppers and Fair recently held in the hall. A rising vote of thanks was given Mark and all who helped him.

A report was given by the lecturer of the year's programs and lecturer's march collection. Ollie Gifford reported on the Home and Community service work for the year. Her committee will hold a rummage sale on Saturday morning, September 23rd.

Members are asked to bring in articles to help fill a basket to be awarded at a future meeting. This is a ways and means project.

The charter was draped for the late John Raphael by Ruby Barber acting chaplain, and Ollie Gifford, acting Ceres.

The lecturer's march was won by Mark Breton.

This was followed by an impromptu program arranged by the lecturer. It started with several jokes read by Earle Wilson, who also read a poem on safety. Ollie Gifford, matron of the Juniors, read a poem on "In the Garden of the Grange", emphasizing the fact that the Juniors are the plants of the Grange. She also is the chairman of the Home and Community Service so conducted a quiz on the different kind of cakes. Mark Harris, Conservation chairman, expressed the information on "What do we plant when we plant a tree", giving many ways the wood of that tree is used. A game, "Glove and Gum", was conducted by Kathy Buckley. The Dairy Farmer's Lament was given by Ruby Barber. A quiz on the Farmer's Harvest was in charge of Etta Kellish. A poem on membership entitled "Change" was read by the master, Mark Breton, and the poem, "The Builder", was given by the lecturer, Mildred LeBaron.

Apples and apple sauce were used as prizes for the program. Each number presented emphasized the different parts of the Grange.

The next meeting, September 21st, will be open for the installation of Mark Harris and his officers for 1973.

The installing master, Ellery Griffin, and his suite are in charge of the installation.

A Way to Peace ?

Editorial, D.C.J.

In the news this week was a headline made by Justice Douglas of the United States Supreme Court. According to the justice, he should have been Roosevelt's running mate instead of Harry Truman. Had he been so, he would have become President of the United States. If he had become President, he would never have dropped the atomic bomb on Japan. To the ultra liberal this is the ultimate in humanitarianism. No regard for the fact that an entire generation of young American manhood would have lost their lives in the invasion of Japan. Perhaps a million young American bodies would have been piled on the beaches and soil of Japan. No matter, Douglas would have spared the world the example of atomic warfare. This is the sort of reasoning that has given the American criminal his rights, almost abolished punishment for crime, and put the United States citizen in continual danger to life and property. In the protection of the criminal's rights, the rights of the law abiding have been trampled into the ground with the result that the streets are now as unsafe as they were in the frontier towns of the "wild west". Never has the criminal had less respect for the law. Murder is unpunishable. Drug trade and its satellite crimes of burglary and prostitution flourish. Yet, Justice Douglas would be the last man on earth to admit that the decisions of the liberal Supreme Court have destroyed the fabric of law that once protected the citizens. Now the ultra left, having ruled the Supreme Court for years, is reaching for the Presidential branch of the government. McGovern can on the one hand advocate the weakening of the military defense structure of the United States while completely ignoring the fact that this strength maintains the balance of power that has deterred a major war since World War II. He can confidently look forward to plans that would make this nation a second class power at the same time he promises that the United States would aid Israel militarily if needed. Mc Govern would give the international criminals their rights (just as Douglas gave the nation's criminals their rights), then Mc Govern would confidently expect the world to live in peace (just as the streets of the United States are now at peace). The liberal view is marvelously shortsighted to spare the liberal from seeing the disaster that follows in his wake.

No wonder Chicago anarchist Abbie Hoffman said, "McGovern better win" in an interview on the floor of the Democratic Convention. No better candidate could be found to advance the cause of Abbie Hoffman.

of the wall fixtures have been taken along with it. The loot was removed through a window of the church after the thieves tried and failed to open the door of the chapel. The small church has never been electrified and the fixtures were for oil lamps. There is now no way to light it for services. The break occurred on August 18th. Sippican Pomona

The first session of Sippican Pomona for the season was held in the Fairhaven Grange Hall with the junior past master of Pomona, Herbert LaFleur, Jr., presiding. During the afternoon session the regular business meeting was held with reports of various committee meetings that were held during the summer recess. The host lecturer, Ethel Erhart, then presented Gwendlyn Racini, a student of the DeRossi School who presented

HUNTING AND FISHING DAY

National Hunting and Fishing Day on September 23rd is your day to meet and honor the 55 million hunters and fishermen who have paid for the wilderness we all enjoy.

Since 1937, hunters and anglers have been financing fish and wildlife research, conservation, land acquisitions, hunter safety, and game management. These active outdoorsmen have paid through the excise tax on the sale of firearms and ammunition and fishing equipment. Not one penny of the 200 million dollars collected in 1971 came from the public monies.

On Saturday, September 23rd, the Fin, Fur and Feather Club of Mattapoisett, Inc. will host an open house from 10 A.M. to 4 P.M. to celebrate National Hunting and Fishing Day and give you an opportunity to experience the outdoors. Visit the open house - participate in the demonstrations and skill
